(Intended write-in candidate is Dion Watkins for the public office of Mayor, in Column 7)

Ballot Number	Description	Write in Validity
1	Use of initial is valid - last name close to candidate's actual name.	YES
2	Use of last name alone is valid but becomes an overvote.	NO
3	Invalid - candidate's name is already on ballot.	NO
4	Valid - candidate's first name incorrect but identifiable.	YES
5	Write-in would have been valid without coloring in voting circle but it becomes an overvote.	NO
6	Valid without coloring circle - but ES&S scanner will record as undervote.	YES
7	No name written in - but ES&S scanner will record as an overvote.	NO
8	Write-in would be valid - but if circling of candidate name is valid - then it's an overvote.	?
9	Write-in is valid and circling of other candidate name not a pattern - probably not an overvote.	YES
10	Valid - but is writing in the blank square an extrinsic marking?	?
11	Valid - but for column 6, scanner would have read as an overvote.	YES
12	Overvote- but ES&S scanner would have given vote to 7C.	NO
13	Valid - but ES&S Scanner would have counted an undervote.	YES
14	Valid - since circling of other candidate's name not a pattern and thus not likely a vote, so therefore not an overvote.	YES
15	Since circling of other candidate is part of a pattern - would be valid for him and thus is an overvote. Both scanners would count as write-in.	NO
16	Not in proper write-in voting square. Both scanners would count for 7H candidate. Likely, no valid vote in Column 7.	NO
17	Probably valid - though none of the other votes would count for candidates already on ballot.	YES
18	Write-in for Column 7 by itself is fine - but this is getting dangerously close to extrinsic, identifying marks (especially in Column 2).	?
19	Write-in for Column 7 by itself is fine - but, "W-T-F" marks - particularly in Column 2, probably invalidate entire ballot.	NO
20	This one is shaky - but BOE should probably validate - court might find it as an identifiable mark.	YES
21	Though circle in Column 7 is filled in, the name is in the wrong column.	NO
22	Write-in fine by itself - the additions of another writing in another (non-voting) area, may be an identifiable mark.	?
23	This doesn't violate the prohibition against being in wrong column - seems to be valid under existing law.	YES
24	Although the name isn't in the wrong 'column' because it's not in any column, the office is not identifiable (even with circle in Column 7 colored in for write-in).	NO
25	Not in correct column - office being voted for unclear.	NO

26	Not in correct column - office being voted for unclear.	NO
27	Wrong column - even with description of office.	NO
28	Not in correct column – office being voted for unclear.	NO
29	Write-in itself is fine – but addition of candidate’s name (again) in a non-voting area of ballot may be an identifiable mark.	?
30	Name not really in “column” so probably not valid.	NO
